- An important criterion in providing a grant is the financial need of the group.
- Grant recipients are requested to acknowledge (in writing) receipt of the funds from Peninsula Arts Foundation within the month following the November awards disbursement.
- Successful candidates must indicate their responsibility and accountability for the grant by returning a final report form by April 30th. This report form is available on our website.
- Failure to acknowledge the grant and to return the report form on time will result in disqualification for a grant in the subsequent year.
- All grant monies must be spent by April 30th, for the purpose indicated on the application.
